“Our Lord has written the promise of resurrection, not in books alone but in every leaf in springtime.”
-Martin Luther

Easter. Combined with Christmas it is the single most important event(s) in the Christian calendar. How do we as a Christian school properly honor this (to say nothing about the challenges associated with CoVid).

As a class we have been reflecting on Easter through the writing of Philip Yancey in his book “The Jesus I Never Knew”. In the book, Yancey reflects:

“I have marveled at, and sometimes openly questioned the self restraint God has shown throughout history, allowing Hitler, Stalin, Mao and others to have their way. But nothing - nothing - compares to the self restraint shown that dark Friday in Jerusalem. With every lash of the whip, every crunch of fist against flesh, Jesus must have mentally replayed the Temptation in the wilderness. Legions of angels awaited His command. One word, and the ordeal would end.” (p. 200).

Through His death and suffering we have hope. There is no greater love than this. Wishing you all a blessed Easter!
