Remembrance Day Chapel

On Wednesday, November 10 TCHS had its annual Remembrance Day assembly. The Assembly included singing, led by students and a Remembrance day reflection by Mrs. Bekkering. Information surrounding Canada's involvement in WWI and WWII was shared. Students were reminded that many teenagers enlisted to fight / help in the war effort and that a number of them made the ultimate sacrifice and never returned. Mrs. Bekkering also shared the "Justice Seeking" theme of Remembrance. The soldiers fought for freedom for people that weren't able to fight for themselves. In fact Canadian peacekeeping efforts continue to this day. Students were reminded that a way of carrying Remembrance Day forward is to seek out the oppressed and support, encourage and be justice seekers for them. Lest We Forget.
