OUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Share/Highlight some key accomplishments.
 - We continue to score very highly in terms of student citizenship and parental involvement metrics.
 - We are continuing to develop our academic programming. This year we are focusing on a project learning based approach to further engage students and to create meaningful learning activities that help us target Alberta learning outcomes
 - We have and continue to have a strong sense of student belonging with our co curricular programs (athletics, drama, chapel and outdoor ed.).

ENGAGING OUR COMMUNITY

- We engaged our community in a Strategic Planning process last Spring. From this experience, Alberta Assurance Measure Data and Horizon school division data, we have created a TCHS Strategic Planning document. This can be found here: <https://tchs.horizon.ab.ca/about/tchs-strategic-plan-2023-2027>

COMMENTARY ON OUR RESULTS (PUTTING IT INTO CONTEXT)

- We are an emerging school that first opened its doors the Fall of 2000. We continue to grow in offering a variety of programs and strengthening the learning experiences we offer for students. The 2023 – 24 school year marks the first year we are able to ‘repeat’ and ‘build off’ the previous year due to our grade configurations being the same. With that understanding we are excited for the potential we have.
