Above All Else

There was a lot of excitement in our student body and broader community as the Above All Else conference kicked off. TCHS and TCS students joined other students at Myers gym to listen to comedian Jaron Myers share amusing anecdotes around day to day life. The theme was “Joy is Free”. Last night, Jaron was joined by Noah Herrin (speaker from Nashville) as a worship service was held at TCHS.

Today, the conference continues as there are two sessions at TCHS in the morning. The first session just involves TCS and TCHS students, while the later morning session will have students from other Christian schools join our students.

Special thanks to all students that have helped put this on (see pic!). Thanks to our own Mr. James Fuller for being the MC, and to Mr. Vriend for his organizing efforts. A huge thanks to Mr. Angermeier for coordinating and leading the planning committee!
(pics and a full recap to be in next week's newsletter)

Lions' Athletics

Our grade 9 badminton players were at WR Myers last week Friday for divisionals. Maddox Kooiker earned gold in men's singles and Lisa Fehr and Abe Fehr won silver in mixed doubles. They will all be heading to zones tomorrow in Medicine Hat. Billy Bergen and Katie Wiebe will also be heading to zones.

Our senior boys will be heading to zones in Lethbridge today. Corny Banman and Kaydan Fehr will be playing men's doubles and Riley Harms is playing men's singles!

Good luck to all of our badminton players!!
